- The Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan (Group 1)
- The King George and Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot (Group 1)

TEMPERAMENT IS KEY

“Postponed was the easiest horse I ever trained, he never had a day's unsoundness and was always ready for work. He is very, very strong in constitution and has never left an oat in his life.”

“

“He's a Group One winner out of a mare, Iota, who won the Group One Preis Der Diana [German Oaks] and he's a full-brother to In Swoop, the German Derby winner and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe runner-up. Ito is a gorgeous-looking horse, standing 16.2hh and getting very good-looking stock, and his temperament is exactly what we look for in a stallion – to us that is as important as their race record. He won as a three-year-old, excelled at four and held his form at five.”

“I bought Kiara Du Mazet from the Goffs UK May sale. Right from day one she has been very forward with an unbelievable temperament, and is showing us plenty at home. She jumps very well and we can't wait to get her out in the early Spring for a 4YO Point to Point.”

CORMAC DOYLE

“I have a lovely filly by Arrigo which we bought from Yorton. We like the sire very much and this filly is showing all the right signs of being an early juvenile type with a great temperament for work.”

HUGO MERIENNE

“Arrigo is one of the most exciting sires we've had the pleasure of standing at Yorton. German pedigrees need no introduction and he hails from one of the very best families. He is tall, athletic and an incredible mover - an exceptionally good looking stallion which we encourage breeders to come and view.”
